Response of State of Michigan, Complainant, to motion of State of Illinois for extension to Feb. 28, 1957 of order authorizing emergency diversion.

In view of the allegations set forth in Michigan's answer to the petition of the State of Illinois for temporary modification of Paragraph 3 of the decree in these causes issued on April 21, 1930 [281 U.S. 696], the State of Michigan does not oppose the motion of the State of Illinois for extension to February 28, 1957, of the order entered by this Court on the 17th day of December, 1956, 352 U.S. 945, subject to the terms and conditions therein set forth. The fact that the State of Michigan does not oppose the motion of the State of Illinois, shall not be construed as an admission or evidence of the right of the State of Illinois, or any of its political subdivisions or other agencies, to divert any waters of the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence system except as provided in the Decree of April 21, 1930, as modified in this Court's order of December 17, 1956 or in Michigan's answer aforesaid.

Respectfully Submitted,

Thomas M. Kavanagh
